

Unlock Your Potential in Hospitality: Free Training and Tools to Build Skills, Gain Confidence, and Succeed at Work!

The Skills for Success in Food Services and Accommodation project will help Canadians at all skill levels improve their foundational and transferable skills, with an emphasis on social and emotional skills, to better prepare for, get, and keep a job.

This project aims to design and implement two training courses and develop assessment tools for three in-demand occupations in the hospitality industry for newcomers, women, youth, and racialized individuals. The courses and tools will be made available online in English and/or in an alternate accessible format at no cost to Canadians. Subsidized wage placements will be available for a period of 12 weeks upon completion of the trainings.

Eligibility Requirements

- Canadian citizens, Permanent Residents in Canada
- Legally entitled to work according to the relevant provincial and federal legislation and regulations
- Unemployed/underemployed
- Canadian Language Benchmark (CLB) 5 or higher
- Willingness to learn, and complete training modules virtually
