A Relaxing Weekend

---

Mary needs to relax. She works too much and is always very tired. This weekend, Mary is not going to work. She is going to spend time with her best friend, Julia.

Mary and Julia have many things in common. They both love to sew, watch scary movies, read books, play cards and go shopping.

This weekend, Mary is going to visit Julia. First, they are going to have a cup of coffee and catch up. Then, Mary and Julia are going to go to the mall. They want to walk around and look for clothes for their children and things for their house. It will be a relaxing weekend.
